

Programme 2020-2021

*"Three Pairs of Shoes" by Paul Jay ARPS DPAGB
1st place, Aggregate Print Heat 3*

Cheltenham Camera Club normally meets on Thursdays from September to May, at Holy Apostles Church Hall, London Road, Cheltenham, GL52 6HT, 7.30pm for 7.45.

At the time of publication, this is not possible so until the end of 2020, our meetings (shown in blue) will be held by Zoom beginning at 7.30pm. The Zoom meeting ID and password will be issued by email prior to the event.

Note that the print aggregate competition has been replaced by a Mono PDI competition and the PDI rounds will be Colour. All aggregate rounds will be 2 images per author.

3 September Classic Wild Landscapes

David Boag FRPS hails from Dorset. A wildlife photographer and lecturer with many publications and awards to his name. His presentation this evening will concentrate on how to photograph landscapes and habitats around the world.

10 September An Evening with Verity Milligan

Verity is an award-winning landscape, wild-life and commercial photographer who writes a regular, monthly column in Practical Photography magazine.

17 September In Town Tonight

An out-door Photo-shoot. Material for Set Subject, Harry Sedgwick and Eric Franks competitions up and down the Prom in evening light? Meet by the statue of Holst in Imperial Gardens at 6 pm. This meet is subject to Covid regulations so details will be confirmed shortly before the event.
